

EXPLORE NGA

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL CAREERS

AUDITS, INSPECTIONS AND INVESTIGATIONS

The National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA) is a U.S. intelligence and combat support agency that provides policymakers, warfighters, intelligence professionals and first responders with key information and insights. Whether you're conducting analysis or determining root-causes, a career with NGA helps protect our nation and our world.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OPPORTUNITIES

The Office of Inspector General (OIG) performs independent audits, inspections, investigations, and reviews of agency policy, programs, operations, and information technology systems in accordance with NGA OIG, Intelligence Community, and Department of Defense guidance and standards.

AUDITORS – Auditors perform independent audits of agency policies, programs, operations, and information technology systems. They gather and analyze information, identify areas for improvement, draft findings and recommendations, and prepare reports in accordance with applicable technical standards.

INSPECTORS – Inspectors perform independent assessments of agency policies, programs, operations, and information technology systems. They gather and analyze information, identify areas for improvement, draft findings and recommendations, and prepare reports in accordance with applicable technical standards.

INVESTIGATORS – Investigators perform independent investigations of potential violations of law, rule, and regulation. Investigations focus primarily on alleged misuse or mismanagement of the agency's programs, operations, or resources by government employees, contractor, or grantees.

QUALIFICATIONS

Relevant degrees may include accounting, business administration, or computer science.

Relevant experience and certification may include a combination of education and federal-sector experience that demonstrates the ability to successfully perform the tasks associated with this work or a certificate as a certified public accountant or certified internal auditor obtained through written examination.

KEY COMPETENCIES

Key competencies may include, but are not limited to: accounting concepts, policies, principles, auditing, data analysis, interviewing, quality assurance, researching, contract performance management, and supporting information systems.

Approved for Public Release #22-071